2 In our next session, let's look at the language examples you collected and discuss some of these questions:

- a. What kind of languages did you find?
- b. Where did you find your examples?
- c. How and why are these languages used?
- d. Who is included and who is excluded, from representations in public space?
- e. Who might be the author of the different signs / texts?
- f. What might be the intended audience for the sign? Why do people use these languages on signs in our community?
- g. How could you use linguistic landscapes in school?
